Priest's Retirement Fund this weekend.

Established in 2007, the Priest's Retirement Foundation of the Archdiocese of Sydney ensures all priests can receive the accommodation, health care and support they need in their retirement. There are now over 60 retired priests in Sydney. The Foundation provides the financial means to care for sick and retired priests, most of whom are over 75 years of age. Even in retirement most priests, while their health allows, will continue to serve the community, in particular, by the celebration of weekend masses in parishes and assisting as chaplains in aged care facilities.

The Priests' Retirement Foundation covers needs such as:

- Nursing home and hostel care for frail priests
- Assistance in transitioning to retirement
- Medical and dental expenses

Priest's Retirement Fund will be held this weekend. There will be a 3rd collection after the Homily for this appeal. Donation over $2 are tax-deductible.

St John Chrysostom

John, the great preacher (his name means "golden-mouthed") from Antioch. Troubled by stomach ailments from his desert days as a monk, John became a bishop. The content of his sermons, were never without a point. Sometimes the point stung the high and mighty. Some sermons lasted two hours. Aloof, energetic, outspoken, especially when he became excited in the pulpit, John was a sure target for criticism and personal trouble. He died in exile in 407.
